Personals-The Office of Storekeeper of the Penitentiary-Norfolk Police Bill Passed Both Houses - Small-Pox Hospital for Strangers-Election of Capitol Officers and Certain Judges-Second Auditor's Offices-Respect to the Memory of Colonel G. W. Munford.

Governor Cameron yesterday sent to the Senate a message, which was not opened, because the Senate was engaged in debating the propriety of electing a Storekeeper of the Penitentiary, as, in the opinion of some, that office is unnecessary. It is generally understood that the message gives the Governor's reasons for not signing the bill to consolidate the Richmond and Southwestern railroad with the Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio narrow-gauge railroad,
